Culinary tourism awareness is one of the most concerning issues presently regarding culture and traditions sustainability. Despite that, technology development pushed millennials to seek something new on what they are consumed through the internet especially on social media. On the other hand, social media also provides an important role in disseminating information to influence millennials in terms of changing millennial's perception and develop millennial's awareness of how they see Indonesia local cuisines as a priority heritage on developing Indonesian culinary diversity to be valuable for every generation.

Moreover, this research intends to seek whether Food Traveler's recommendation does give an impact regarding millennial's culinary tourism awareness with the case study of Indonesia's local cuisine. The data were collected from 146 millennial that are using social media, Instagram on searching for information about Indonesian culinary tourism with a quantitative method to observe. The finding indicates that millennial's perception, millennial's awareness and effectiveness of E-WOM and Hashtags are significantly impacted millennial on culinary tourism awareness by 68.8% with Simple Linear Regression to examine the collected data. Furthermore, this research provides several suggestions to enhance awareness of Indonesia's local cuisine by considering millennial's perception contribution to food traveler's recommendation.

Keywords: food traveler, food traveler's recommendation, culinary tourism awareness, Indonesia local cuisine, effectiveness of food traveler on social media, millennial's perception, millennial's awareness, effectiveness of E-WOM and hashtags, behavioral intention to follow, giving recommendations

DEDICATION

I dedicate this works for the universe, my future, and my parents for their endless support in any form. I sincerely hope this research is able to help improve future research regarding similar topics.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to God for giving me the strength, opportunity, health, guidance, and His countless blessings.

Second, I am sincerely thankful for my parents, big families, my best friends, relatives, and those who are supporting and praying me countless times. Thank you for all your recommendations, help, critics, and sincere love.

To Sir Are, thank you for patiently handle, teach, and guide me every time I need your help. Especially thank you for your presence in giving me so much knowledge throughout the process and answering all of my questions during this quarantine moment. Also to Mr. James from English Department, thank you for your entire patient, recommendations and helped correcting my grammars and vocabulary.

To my other half, Alicia, Nadea, Della, Nabila, Bella, and Annisa; thank you for supporting each other's and especially assist me in doing my thesis.

To my dearest gang at Swiss German University during this 8 semesters journey here, SUKU MANTE! Let's meet up and karaoke soon! I wish we can catch up and gossiping together at Bella's house as soon as possible 😊

To my entire friends I cannot mention one by one, thank you for always be there for me through this time, thank you for patiently teaching me to be a better version of me. Thank you for all of your positive thoughts, sincere support, and kindness towards me.

Last but not least, to my supportive boyfriend. Thank you for your countless help.

I really appreciate it.
